Wednesday Evening ADM Follies

Thursday Evening Closing Concert

GENERAL INFORMATION

Dress for the week is casual—shorts, slacks, etc. Less casual attire is encouraged for worship leaders while serving in worship, for everyone attending the Thursday evening banquet and for all participants in the final concert.

Handbell ringers will need to bring their own gloves and music folders. Organists wishing to play in the master classes need to bring organ shoes and music to play for David Cherwien.

Bring guitars and other instruments to play in options.

Tuesday evening has been left open for exploration of the Tulsa area. No evening meal will be served.

Duplicate as necessary. Detach and return registration form to: ADM, PO Box 1986, Indianapolis, IN 46206 or register online at www.adm-doc.org (Enrollment is limited to the first 300 registrants.)

WHY ADM?

The purpose is to increase the effectiveness of musicians, clergy, and laity through the exchange of ideas, development of skills, and opportunities for fellowship as they participate in the mission of the church.

WHO SHOULD COME?

Membership is composed of choir directors, organists, praise musicians, handbell ringers, clergy, and lay persons who are interested in the musical life of the Church.

Through ADM's National Annual Conference, network and newsletters, full time or part time professionals and volunteers in large and small congregations can share resources, experiences, and insights into their common music ministry. Annual conferences have taken place in 17 states and the District of Columbia, with nationally recognized clinicians, as well as leaders from within the membership.

NEW FOUR DAY MINI CONFERENCE

In addition to our familiar conference registration, this year we are offering a MINI CONFERENCE of 4 days and 3 nights with reduced costs. Join us in Tulsa and choose a conference length that's best for you.

First Christian Church, Tulsa, Oklahoma is our worship home for ADM 2008.

Make your conference reservations for only $89+tax per night at the Doubletree Hotel. Call 918.587.8000
