ADM 2022 Conference of Music and Worship

July 17-22, 2022

University of Tulsa / Tulsa, Oklahoma

Dear ADM Family and Friends:

I am excited to say that the 2022 Music and Worship Conference is scheduled to be a wonderful opportunity to be together again after a two-year hiatus and to celebrate the 60th anniversary of ADM conferences. If you haven't registered, go to www.adm-doc.org and click on Registration.

We have a star-studded group of clinicians and option leaders to make all conference activities excellent opportunities for learning, sharing, and being of benefit for your interests and needs. On top of that will be a very receptive group of ADMers ready to connect with each of you and welcome you to the ADM family.

Registration will begin at 3:00 pm on Sunday, July 17, followed by five days of worship, worship seminar & discussion; option classes on organ & piano(both individual and collaborative); choral(directing & vocal training); handbells(advanced & beginning ringers); anthem reading sessions(both large & small choirs); congregational songwriting, chapel choir, handbell reading sessions; evening activities; and a final closing service on Friday, July 22. More to come!

Clinician Update

With the resignation of David Cherwien, our Organ Clinician, it is with great pleasure to announce that the position has been filled with an organ/piano collaborative being taken care of by Carolyn Sargent, Keyboard Specialist at Mayflower Congregational Church in Oklahoma City and Rev. Dr. Jacob Miller, Associate Minister of First Christian Church Amarillo, Texas. Both Carolyn and Jacob are ADMers and have already shared their talents either on the Planning Council or serving in past conferences.

Carolyn Sargent's pronouns are she/her. Carolyn is a recent graduate of Oklahoma City University, having earned a Master of Music degree in organ performance. Her undergraduate degree is in music, biology, and chemistry from the University of North Texas.

Currently, Carolyn serves as principal keyboardist at Mayflower Congregational Church and also sings and plays viola where appropriate. She also works full time as a tuning and maintenance technician with Red River Pipe Organ Company out of Norman.

When not working, Carolyn enjoys spending time with her fiancé, Jacy, and their eight (!) fur babies. She loves nurturing plants, animals, and humans, and is happiest while learning and practicing whatever skill has her interest that day.

Jacob Miller is the Associate Minister of First Christian Church, Amarillo, Texas, primarily leading in the areas of music and worship and assisting in pastoral care. Jacob has been involved with the Disciples of Christ denomination from his early 20's, having grown up in the Baptist tradition.

Attending Baylor University, he earned both his Bachelor of Music and Master of Music degrees in church music and then earned his Doctor of Musical Arts degree in conducting from Texas Tech University. Jacob has been a commissioned minister in the denomination since 2010. Jacob loves to travel, having visited many states, but his favorite places are Santa Fe, Louisville, Nashville, and Austin.

Carolyn and Jacob join our other clinicians Suzanne Castle, Worship, Andra Moran, Emerging Worship, Kim Childs, Choral, and Nancy Krause, Handbells.
