Grace Cox-Johnson, a nationally-known visual artist, is a fiber artist and dyer, whose company, Color 4 the Journey, specializes in art for worship settings. She has given workshops in the fields of church music, the use of symbols and colors in liturgy and worship, as well as many hands on workshops in various surface design techniques with fabric and dyes. Grace will be leading the Tuesday afternoon Tactile Activity as well as the daily Sensory Worship Sessions.

Terrell L. McTyer will be leading the Gospel Music Sessions on Friday and Saturday. Terrell has an extensive background in directing church choirs, performing in numerous productions, and writing and recording countless songs and plays. His most recent degree is a Masters of Pastoral Theology, and he and his family are the founders of Manifestation Christian Center.

Spreading the word: If each of you would forward the email containing this newsletter to others in your church, friends in other churches/denominations, and/or anyone you know who would benefit from ADM membership and the annual conference, just think about how many more would know about our organization. Your newsletter editor appreciates those names and email addresses that are sent for his distribution lists. Send to: bradb1007@cox.net

An opportunity to help ADM!

By Susan Adams

If you can't come to ADM this year, consider this --- costs for the conference have been kept down over the years because generous people built up the ADM Endowment and Worship Clinician funds since the idea first became reality -- and that was at William Jewell in 1998!!! Those funds are now providing part of the cost of running the conferences.

There is now a Musician Clinicians Fund which will greatly offset the costs of getting first-rate people to be at future conferences in a wide variety of music disciplines. If we can all help to keep ADM as a most affordable opportunity for years, everyone will benefit.

If you'd like to make a donation in honor of or in memory of someone special in your musical journey -- an ADMer, a colleague at your church, a private or school teacher who encouraged you or a family member, it will be greatly appreciated. ADM will publish the honorees -- and your connections if you wish --- and keep them and you always in gratitude.

My list is long -- how about yours?

Among our members.....

We recently received word of the death on September 8, 2014, of a former, very active ADMer, Hazel Arpke. Many of you may remember Hazel, her infectious smile, and her dedication to ADM. You can read her complete obituary at:

Friends: it is unlikely that I will be able to join you in Liberty this coming summer. In December I had long postponed surgery on my ankle and am on medical leave for several months to recover (6 weeks with no weight-bearing, also no driving). I will have inadequate vacation time for both ADM and General Assembly (hope to see some of you in Columbus, Ohio in July!). I will really miss ADM and Mark Hayes but expect to rejoin you in 2016.

Margaret Green-Masters.

2015 General Assembly: ADM will have a booth at this summer's General Assembly of the Christian Church (DoC). The GA is being held in Columbus, Ohio on July 18-22. ADMer, Marilyn Bolen, from Akron, OH is heading up a group of volunteers to man our booth and help spread the "word" about ADM. If you are close by and willing to offer your help, please get in touch with Marilyn at mimizoom@juno.com.

Job Opportunity: Northway Christian Church, Dallas, TX, has a job opening for a Director of Music Ministries. If you or someone you know is interested in the position, a cover letter and résumé should be sent to John Ruth, Chair of the Search Committee, by email (jobs@northwaychristian.org) or by mail to: John Ruth, Northway Christian Church, 7202 W. Northwest Hwy., Dallas, TX 75225-2450.
