Conference 2014.....

Here's hoping you've decided to be with the ADM Family at this year's conference in Decatur, IL on July 13 – 18. The latest conference details are now posted on the ADM Website, www.adm-doc.org. Please check it often to learn of additional arrangements. A conference flier is included at the end of this newsletter.

Message from Shannon Moore

As most of you know, Shannon Moore was ordained at his church in Weatherford, TX back in October. Your ADM Council sent flowers from his ADM Family as an expression of our love and support of his ministry.

"I would like to thank ADM for the beautiful flower arrangement you sent to my ordination service in October. I appreciate your support of my ministry."

It was wonderful to have Gala Strunk and Gregg Nunn participate as organists. I know many more of you were there in spirit."

Thanks again!

ADMer News.....

Word has been received of two deaths among our members:

Carol Adams, Runnells Christian Church, Runnells, Iowa and Carol Wrable, Lakewood Christian Church, Lakewood, Ohio

Your newsletter editor has been trying to find out something about a former, very-active ADMer, Ola "Cricket" Harrison in response to several asking about her over the past few years.

After reading numerous postings on the "Fans of Cricket Harrison" facebook page, I've learned that Cricket has had very serious health issues since last September. Having been in the hospital in Odessa, TX for many weeks, Cricket is now in her home and hoping to receive aid through agencies in Texas. A request has been sent out for donations to help bridge the gap. If you would like to contribute, checks can be sent to: Cricket's Account, c/o Keith & Sharna Gibbons, 1609 Pagewood, Odessa, Texas 79761. I'm sure Cricket would love hearing from her ADM family with cards sent to her at 1608 E. 42nd, Odessa, Texas 79762.

Please send Brad any news you may have about ADMers that can be shared through our newsletter. Brad's email is bradb1007@cox.net.

Kirby Gould, ADM Planning Council Treasurer and Vice-President of the Christian Church Foundation, encourages all ADMers to consider making gifts any time during the year to any one or all four of the ADM funds. They are:

- The ADM Endowment Fund
- The Tom Wood ADM Worship Clinician Fund
- The Vera Enz “First-Timers” Fund
- The ADM Musician Clinician Fund

If you have questions about the funds, please get in touch with Kirby at kgould@ccf.disciples.org. Send any contributions and make checks payable to ADM, c/o Lonna Owens, 130 E. Washington St., Indianapolis, IN 46204

Looking Back to Ft. Wayne.....

The
2013
Planning
Team of Susan
Adams,
Ruth
Moore,

Geoff North and Shannon Moore encourage all of you to give serious thought about going to Decatur this coming July. The ADM Tradition needs to stay alive and well!

This must have been a good option!!

It's a stretch for Herb, but David Emanuel, Kathy Keough, and Kathy Johnson are from the East Coast!

Here's hoping that ALL of the 2013 First-timers will become full-fledged ADMers by attending the 2014 conference.

Surely the number from Iowa and Illinois will grow, since we'll be in their backyard this year in Decatur and Springfield.

Even Lola will be in Decatur!!
